Trace the story of Polish Jews

POLIN Museum of the History of Polish Jews shows the story of the thousand years of common Polish Jews history in eight multimedia galleries. Look around Grzybowski Square and Próżna Street, where there are several buildings that survived the war, and enjoy a traditional Jewish meal in one of the nearby restaurants.

The Jewish Cemetery is one of two Europe's largest Jewish necropolis and many distinguished people, who contributed to the city development, rest there in peace – rabbis, doctors, politicians.

Izrael Poznański's mausoleum is known as the biggest Jewish tombstone in the World.

Reicher family synagogue is the only Łódź synagogue that survived the war. Currently the building of the synagogue is managed by the Jewish Religious Community.

Art & culture

Duration:
4 days

The Zachęta - National Gallery of Art is a place where the most interesting phenomena of 20th and 21st century art are presented. This over 100 years old institution stages temporary exhibitions of outstanding Polish and foreign artists. Koneser Praga Center offers iconic restaurants and bars, exceptional museums, unique shops, fairs, festivals, and other events, in the scenery of historic, marvelously restored red brick buildings of the 19th-century vodka factory.

Łódź stands out with more than a hundred palaces and villas. Herbst Palace - a branch of Museum of Art and its interiors are an illustration of former factory owners lifestyle. The famous Łódź Film School, an elite school which has trained generations of outstanding directors and actors was also established around that time. The symbol of the school are the famous stairs on which Andrzej Wajda, Roman Polański, or Krzysztof Kieślowski used to sit.

Discover Warsaw and Łódź through colorful murals

Street art has gradually become an important element of Warsaw's cityscape, making the city more colorful and exciting. You can discover the most interesting projects of local artists, such as NeSpoon or Tytus Brzozowski, adorning abandoned walls, city streets, and houses with beautiful intricate lace patterns translated into paintings, ceramics, crochets, and stencil works.

Many buildings in Łódź are adorned with murals which create the largest urban gallery in Poland consisting of more than 160 pieces. They are creations of known Polish as well as foreign street artists. The contemporary outdoor urban gallery is not only graffiti, but also all kinds of installations on the building walls, made of metals rods, car parts, mirror fragments, or even moss.
